
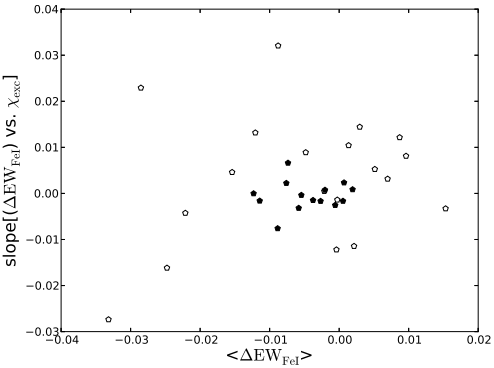
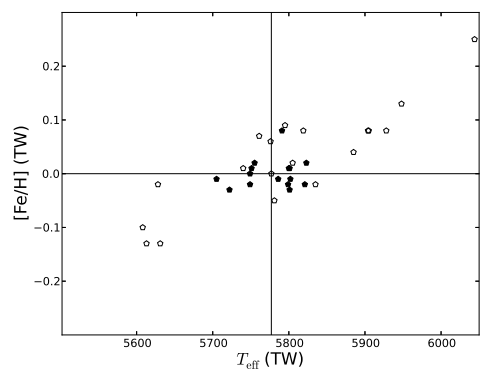
(a) Distribution of the quantities used in our first method for finding solar twins.



(b) Distribution of the quantities used in our second method for finding solar twins.



(c) Distribution of the spectroscopic parameters determined for the asteroids and twins.